Double Guard Kept At Laredo For Fear Of Federal Attack

American River Front Guarded By Citizens and Volunteers As It Is Thought Attempt Might Be Made to Dynamite Bridges

NUEVO LAREDO IS A MASS OF SMOULDERING RUINS

Fires Still Burning Throughout the City Today—Many Large Buildings Ruined Including American Consulate, Postoffice and Municipal Building—National Railway Shops Destroyed—Hundreds of Destitute Refugees Must Be Taken Care of.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Laredo, Texas, April 25.—After a night of anxiety, Laredo today awoke to the realization that danger of immediate trouble from Mexican federals across the river from here had passed. Smoldering ruins still showed the presence of fire but most of the fires were extinguished by the rain that fell during the night, or died for lack of material.

None of the Mexicans returned to Nuevo Laredo this morning. A few adventurous young men crossed the international bridge but there was nothing to be seen but the ruins of the buildings.

A saloon belonging to Dario Sanchez, a citizen of the United States and a resident of Laredo, was saved from the flames, although the other buildings in the same block were destroyed. The drugstore of Shelby Theriot, American vice-consul suffered no damage, although buildings directly in front of it were destroyed.

A conservative estimate of the damage done places the loss at $500,000. Some of the property owners who suffered the most had contributed large sums to the federal cause, some of it willingly but the greater part was in the form of forced "contributions."

During the night no attempt was made to fire or blow up either of the bridges across the Rio Grande. This may, in part, be due to the fact that the railroad bridge was brilliantly illuminated by headlights from two locomotives, while the international bridges, piers and approaches on the Mexicans side were lighted from a search light made from a moving picture projector. The guards at the bridge and the patrols through the streets reported all quiet during the night. In fact a steady rain for some time drove all indoors for shelter and after 10 o'clock the streets were practically deserted except for soldiers and police.

Laredo, Texas, April 25.—Smoldering ruins in what was once the populous Mexican border town, Nuevo Laredo and hundreds of destitute refugees huddled in every possible shelter here, were visible reminders today of the desolation wrought late yesterday by Mexican federals who burned and dynamited their northern stronghold. Excitement occasioned when the Mexicans began firing across the international line and their sharp interchanges with the United States border patrol subsided quickly when the federals retreated, but left a strong feeling of uneasiness in its wake.

All night a reinforced patrol, aided by citizens and volunteers guarded the river front and heavy guards were maintained at the two international bridges.

It was feared other attempts to dynamite this means of communication between the two countries would be made. Two Mexicans were shot yesterday in attempting to destroy the bridges. Some of the more nervous citizens fear another visit of the federals to attack Laredo itself, but army officials though every precaution is being taken, believe that there is no danger. There was no further trouble during the night.

Every American In Northern Mexico Is Now a Refugee; Millions of Property Left

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

El Paso, Texas, April 25.—With the arrival here today of ninety-seven American men, women and children, refugees from Madera, and twelve picked up by the train at Chihuahua, Americans who have been leaving the country since the Tampico incident, are now practically all out of the state of Chihuahua.

The remnant in the city of Chihuahua, with the exception of a few who are determined to remain to the last, will leave tomorrow on the regular train.

At Naco, Douglas and Nogales, on the Arizona-Mexico border they are arriving by the hundreds every day and the state of Sonora, save in isolated ranches and camps not yet reached by warnings, is now practically denuded of them.

After four years of revolution, practically every American in northern Mexico is now a refugee, and property worth many millions of dollars in mines, ranches and factories and other industries has been left behind.

Many of these industries have remained operative partially, at least, through every difficulty and discouragement of robbery, taxation, uncertain communications and every personal danger of employees, but almost the last one of those Americans, who built and maintained them have been driven out by the developments of the affair at Tampico.

W. W. Grubbs, of Madera, where the great sawmills have persistently, but on a constantly diminished scale, manufactured their output, related a pathetic incident of the departure of the Americans from that city.

"The closing of the mills meant much to us," he said, "but I guess it meant more to thousands of Mexicans employed there. There was a big crowd of them at the station when we went away and some fairly begged us to stay. I don't know what will become of them, now that their employment is gone. It was a sad scene and we didn't have an enemy in the crowd. In fact, through the whole trip we encountered nothing but courtesy, and not a sign of enmity."

LET EVERYBODY HELP

Every citizen of Newark has the opportunity to contribute to the factory fund now being raised by the Board of Trade. The publicity campaign through the newspapers has acquainted every reader with the purpose of this work and numerous responses have been received from those who have been reached through the mails. The city has just been divided into districts by the directors and the committees will personally call upon the tax payers and others who are all invited to join in the movement to create a substantial factory fund. Every citizen is invited to contribute a definite amount in proportion to his financial interest in the city. This fund will be placed in the hands of trustees and will be used for the commercial development of Newark. The Board of Trade has a single purpose in view, namely, to promote the industrial growth and development of this city. It is standing upon a platform upon which all may agree. There is certainly no man or woman in Newark who does not wish Newark to grow and to prosper. The only practical way to make this city develop is to establish more factories here and the way to bring factories is to create a fund from which money may be drawn and used in the location of new industries in this city. Those who have received cards are earnestly requested to sign and mail them promptly to Secretary Whitcomb. This will encourage the committees in their effort to make Newark grow.

Three Americans, the First Victims of the Mexicans at Vera Cruz.

JOHN SCHUMACHER.

When Captain W. R. Rush of the battleship Florida, landed marines at Vera Cruz, under Major Smedley Butler, four men were killed: Daniel A. Haggerty of Cambridge, Mass.; George Poinsett of Philadelphia; John Schumacher of Brooklyn, and Samuel Marten of Chicago. They were the first to give up their lives for their country in what may be a long war with Mexico, or a mere temporary occupation of territory, as President Wilson wishes.

To the parents of each man sacrificed for his country, Secretary of the Navy Daniels wrote, at the direction of the president, this letter of condolence:

"This morning's dispatches from Vera Cruz conveying the distressing news that your son was in the first line to give his life for his country saddens all Americans as the tragedy brings gloom into your home."

"My feeling and the feeling of the president to you in this sad hour was expressed by President Lincoln, when on Nov. 21, 1864, he wrote to Mrs. Bixby of Boston, whose five sons gave their lives fighting under the American flag:

"I feel how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from a loss so overwhelming. But I can not refrain from tendering to you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the republic they died, to save. I pray that our heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom."

At the homes of these men elaborate preparations were made for funerals. Requests were made to the secretary of the navy for the shipment of the bodies home, and the burials will take on something of a public function in each city where a hero is to be honored.

BRYAN

FINALLY AND EMPHATICALLY DENIES ANY INTENTION OF RESIGNING.

Divergent Views of President and Advisers Natural Product of Responsibility.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, April 25.—Secretary of State Bryan today emphatically denied widespread and persistent reports that he would resign from the cabinet. When informed of published reports that he would relinquish his post should war be declared against Mexico, Mr. Bryan said:

"The subject of my resignation has never been discussed with anybody nor thought of by me."

White House officials pointed to the general denial issued a few days ago, to the story that Secretary Bryan would resign, saying that statement was sufficient to cover all rumors of cabinet dissension. They said they did not regard it as necessary with each published report.

Outside of the White House there had been considerable discussion of the individual views known to be held by members of the cabinet on the present situation. None of these is said to be serious of approaching any breach in the president's official family, but there have been natural differences of opinion as to what aggressive measures should be pursued. The president himself, it is said, has invited the widest range of suggestions from his advisers and has steered a wide course between those who favor a quickly aggressive policy and those who believe war can be best averted by patience and carefully deliberated action.

Persons close to the administration council described the divergence of views as the product of natural differences among those charged with responsibility for executive action. Officials point out, for instance, that the war department is naturally anxious to take every reasonable precaution with its military forces, and the navy is bending its energies likewise to perfecting its preparations for actual warfare. All the cabinet secretaries themselves denied that there is any serious division and point to their close and frequent conferences as evidence of their co-operation.

Reported Killing Of Four Americans Not Yet Confirmed

Said to Have Been Massacred In Street of Mexico City By Mob—State of Affairs In the Capital Growing Worse

INTENSE ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING OVER REPUBLIC

Military Authorities at Vera Cruz Say Situation Is Very Grave—Saloons Closed at Latter Place and Restaurants are Having Difficulty in Furnishing Food—American Lines Ten Miles in Length Completely Encircle the City.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Vera Cruz, April 25.—El Dictamen, a Vera Cruz newspaper today says four Americans have been killed by mobs in Mexico City. It declares it has received this information from the federal capital.

Three of the American victims were taken out of street cars and killed on the streets, while the fourth was killed in the Y. M. C. A. building by members of the baseball team to which he belonged, according to El Dictamen, which made its appearance today. The information as to the massacre of Americans is not confirmed from any other source and is considered doubtful in many quarters.

Vera Cruz was today isolated from direct communication with the interior, but the sparse news brought here by refugees indicates that the state of affairs is bad, and rapidly growing worse, as far as Americans are concerned.

The refugees arriving here bring word of intense anti-American feeling in all directions. The American military authorities in Vera Cruz consider the situation of Americans in the capital and all over the whole republic as grave.

Almost normal tranquility has been restored in the city but occasional sniping occurred during the night. There was, however, no general disorder, the dominions of the city by the American forces having been generally accepted by the residents.

The restaurants are having difficulty in furnishing the usual quantity and quality of food. Prices have been advanced.

The American lines, some ten miles in length, now completely encircle the city.

WASHINGTON GOVERNMENT IS AROUSED

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, April 25.—Unconfirmed rumors of the killing of Americans by mobs in Mexico City, the arrest of American railroad employees yesterday at Orizaba, and information forwarded to Washington that American military authorities at Vera Cruz considered the situation at Mexico City and throughout the Mexican republic a grave one for Americans there aroused activity of the Washington government today.

While the authorities were exerting every possible effort to get verification of the disquieting reports from the Mexican capital, secretary of State Bryan conferred with the Brazilian ambassador here, Mr. Dagama, over the arrest of Americans at Orizaba and informed him that he had requested the Brazilian diplomatic representative in Mexico City, to seek the release of the prisoners. Ambassador Dagama urged the Brazilian minister in Mexico City to do all he could for the release of the Americans.

Officials here were much excited over the reported assassination of Americans in Mexico City. Serious eventualities there, it was pointed out, might aggravate the present situation among the people that would demand more aggressive action in Mexico on the part of his government. It was further emphasized, however, that mob violence could not be construed as any deliberate act of General Huerta and that it could be claimed by his government that it was powerless to control the situation according to the anti-American feeling roused by the seizure of Vera Cruz. Although no new military orders were issued by the war department today plans for perfecting the operations at Vera Cruz and along the Mexican border were considered by Secretary Garrison, General Witherspoon, chief of staff, and Major General Wood, chosen to direct the military operations, in co-operation with secretary of the Navy Daniels. After a long conference of the department officials today Secretary Garrison declared that the troops enroute to Vera Cruz to enforce the naval forces were being sent there "for duty." What form this duty would take or how extensive or aggressive the operation of the troops would be the secretary would not say. It was declared, however that there had been no change in the policy of the government to "sit tight" at Vera Cruz unless retaliatory tactics should be resorted to by General Huerta or some overt action

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs kidneys then back hurts and bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleepless and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

REPORTED KILLING

on the part of the constitutionalists should demand a forward movement in Mexico.

Neutrality on the part of the constitutionalists, officials believed would be observed.

Should war be forced upon this government, it was pointed out the base of operations would be at Vera Cruz and the plan would be to confine the advance if possible to the territory controlled by Huerta, with Mexico City as the objective point of the American forces. The movement, it was generally believed would be an extensive one.

Should the word come to advance to the interior in order to protect life and property, it is said, the war department is ready to send an army of 20,000 men and to increase the forces to a great degree along the Mexican border.

Today there were appeals for more troops from border states and the war department officials, while considering plans for co-operating the militia in those states, also were working out plans for calling into the service the militia of various states, under the terms of the volunteer army bill just passed. The war department throughout the day was humming with excitement although no new orders were issued. Reports that General Wood already had been ordered to Vera Cruz were emphatically denied. Reports of disunion in the cabinet over the policy being pursued in the Mexican crisis also were denied, and Secretary of State Bryan branded as false rumors again circulated that he would resign his post in the event that war is declared.

Announcement today by the Spanish ambassador, Mr. Riano, that Mexico had turned its affairs in the United States over to his government came as a surprise to officials here. The general expectation has been that France would be asked to act on Mexico's behalf. Following the reports from Madrid yesterday that King Alfonso was willing to act as mediator in the differences between this country and Mexico the selection of Spain to look after the affairs of Mexico was regarded with significance. Although there have been several informal suggestions of diplomatic intervention from various quarters it is declared at the state department that no formal offers had been made nor were any expected.

In an official report from Consul Canada at Vera Cruz the state department was informed today that several Americans were placed under arrest in Mexico City after being taken from the refugee train that carried Charge O'Shaughnessy and his party to Vera Cruz. J. Starr Hunt and his family were among those arrested. Burton Wilson was taken from the train at the first station out of Mexico City.

Americans remaining in Mexico City are entirely dependent upon the government and the small guards maintained at the foreign legations for protection it was stated at the state department today. There are between 60 and 100 men attached to the various foreign legations in the Mexican capital armed with small arms and machine guns upon whom the Americans might depend. These the department said would be effective only against sporadic mob violence and would be practically powerless against any general movement or any mob attack which the Mexican government might ignore.

The state department said that no official dispatches confirmed the report that four Americans had been killed in Mexico City, and Consul Canada at Vera Cruz still in communication with the department has reported nothing more serious from Mexico City than the pulling down of the Washington statue and the stopping of the American club.

Further details as to conditions in Mexico City were given Consul Canada by the refugees who have reached Vera Cruz. They report a reign of terror in the capital and confirm the reports of anti-American outbreaks. A mob entered Porters Hotel, an American institution, insulted the guests, smashed windows and attacked the hotel until the guests were taken to other hotels and the managers of the hotel went to Vera Cruz.

The American club was attacked and several stores were sacked with a loss estimated at 50,000 pesos. Counsel Canada said that the refugees reported the American colony well organized for defense. All foreigners had concentrated to withstand any attack. They are well armed but fear an attack by overwhelming mobs. On Tuesday all business houses in the capital were closed and the streets were filled with disorderly crowds.

Refugees reported that prior to April 22, the Huerta government had been conscripting soldiers, securing 2,000 by forcible conscription in Mexico City and Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. On April 21, it was stated Mexicans began to volunteer for service.

The military heads, it was reported, discussed conditions generally and particular reference to the situation on the Texas border. Word was received that troops were ordered from the Pacific coast to the Texas border were entrained for Fort Sam Houston.

Reports that General Wood and General Scott had been ordered to Vera Cruz to take charge of the army movements there were emphatically denied and General Wood's declaration early today that absolutely no new army orders had been issued.

The attack on Laredo, Texas, and Mexican evacuation of Nuevo Laredo across the Mexican border were extensively discussed and the sending of the Texas militia in the field as an aid to the federal troops on border patrol also was taken up.

The conference further considered and prepared to meet the necessity of a change in the situation in northern Mexico on the offensive. The possibility of mobilizing a militia under the new volunteer army bill which was laid before the President for his signature was also deliberated upon.

forces under the new measure will call for a large amount of detailed work and the department wishes to be fully prepared to meet it.

Ways and means of future possible operations were discussed at length. Various plans of movements of all sorts have been submitted to the department and while no definite plan has been outlined, it has been given consideration. A conference reviewed several possible operations which might be made necessary by a declaration of war, or an attack by Huerta forces.

Secretary Garrison today that the United States troops which have been ordered to Vera Cruz are asked as to the purpose of the military movement. He would make no further explanation of the shipment of the Fifth army division from Galveston.

The war department announced later that as many as 10,000 troops of the Fourth field army can be taken on the liner S. Marcos will leave Galveston late today for Vera Cruz. The troops will take their equipment with them and the remainder of the regiment of the animals will sail later on the Aquila.

Officers of both the army and navy departments were concerned today over the report from Vera Cruz that a small Mexican force was prepared to blow up the railroad bridges between Vera Cruz and Mexico City. Several of these bridges could not be replaced and temporary provision for getting trains to them would be impossible. The plan of the navy and war departments of possible operations out of Vera Cruz hinge on the possession of the railroad and it was feared they would be seriously hampered if the bridges were destroyed.

The navy department believes that an expedition out of Vera Cruz along the railroad would insure the safety of the bridges, but it was pointed out that this would be an act of war. This probably would be the first move in case war actually is declared. Meantime, the naval forces in Vera Cruz must come to their operations to that city and its immediate environs.

The Marconi Wireless company has placed at the disposal of the American government free service and preference over all other businesses which includes the company's stations on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts and all Marconi equipped vessels in American waters for relay purposes.

The navy department today received a report from Admiral Badger at Vera Cruz, stating that all of the wounded are improving and that the surgical cases are doing "surprisingly well."

An undercurrent desire in congress for more aggressive action in Mexico became apparent today, several members of the House and chairman of important house committees agreeing that the plan to "sit tight" at Vera Cruz awaiting retaliatory developments might result in embarrassing international complications.

ANXIETY FELT FOR PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARIES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, April 25.—Anxiety was expressed today at the headquarters of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions over the safety of several of its missionaries in Mexico. Word was received yesterday that missionaries had arrived at Vera Cruz from Mexico City with the other Americans aboard the British refugee train. The board sent a cable message to Mexico City, inquiring as to the safety of the Rev. H. S. Phillips, who has been working at Zitacuaro.

Other missionaries who have not been heard from include the Rev. and Mrs. William Wallace, the Rev. N. J. Elliott of Long Beach, Calif., and the Rev. and Mrs. T. Malloy of Corsicana, Texas.

Fears for the safety of its missionaries in Mexico were relieved this morning by a cablegram from Vera Cruz received at the headquarters of the Methodist Episcopal board of foreign missions. According to this source thirty missionaries have arrived in Vera Cruz, and all the others are safe in Mexico City, Pueblo and Guanajuato.

ARBOR DAY OBSERVED BY DENISONIANS

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, April 25.—College classes were neglected Friday at Denison in order that the students might aid in beautifying Granville and Beaver athletic field. For this purpose the college faculty declared a special holiday and the result is that Sugar Loaf and Beaver field has been greatly improved.

From early in the morning till 5:30 in the evening work progressed rapidly on Beaver field. Prof. T. S. Johnson, head of the engineering department supervised the moving of the grand stand to a position about thirty feet east of its former resting place. This will afford to the spectators an opportunity to witness better the curves of the pitcher.

The track was barrowed and scraped, scraped and barrowed until now it is in perfect condition. The baseball diamond was subjected to the same process and is now in fine condition. Student carpenters also busied themselves repairing fences which enclose the field.

DENISON GIRLS LOSE AT HOME, WIN ABROAD

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, April 25.—Otterbein ladies were victorious in their debate with young women representing Denison last night. The decision of the judges was unanimous in favor of Otterbein. However Denison has the consolation of winning the debate at Westerville with another team of Otterbein co-eds on the same evening.

The subject debated was, "Resolved, That the minimum wage for women workers in Ohio should be fixed by the law." Arguments on both sides were strong and interesting. Miss Brown of Denison, a Newark girl presented the most logical and clearest talk for the Baptist trio. It is a significant fact that this is the first experience of Denison ladies in inter-collegiate debate, and as Otterbein has turned out a team comprised of young women in the past, they had a slight advantage.

Otterbein speakers clung closely to the question and based their references upon well reputed authorities, who believed in the minimum wage law for women. Miss Snyder, Miss Karg and Miss Drury spoke for the visiting team in the affirmative while Miss Brown, Miss Bailey and Miss Kemper took the negative view of the question for Denison. The judges were Prof. C. S. Duncan of Columbus, Judge Kibler and Superintendent Vance of the Delaware public schools.

PUBLIC FUNERAL FOR SEAMAN WHO WAS WAR VICTIM

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New Orleans, April 25.—Gretna, La., opposite New Orleans, is arranging a public funeral for Louis O. Friend, who Representative Dupre yesterday stated in the House of Representatives, was the first southerner to die in the fighting at Vera Cruz. Admiral Blue, chief of the bureau of navigation at Washington, has informed the boy's father the body would be sent home as soon as possible. Friend was an ordinary seaman on the battleship Arkansas and was killed Wednesday.

INSULTS FLAG; REFUSES BOND TO KEEP PEACE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, April 25.—Reba Edelson, the girl whose alleged reflections upon the American flag, with those attributed to Samuel Hartman, preceded a riotous disturbance at an outdoor Industrial Workers of the World meeting on Wednesday, went on a hunger strike last night in the Tombs prison after she, together with Hartman, had been convicted of disorderly conduct.

After finding the prisoners guilty Magistrate Simms placed them under a bond of $300 each to keep the peace for three months. When the Edelson girl learned, however, that this meant she must cease speaking at any meeting within that period when ordered to do so by the police, she declined to be bailed out. Hartman was released under bond.

Elks Circus Coming Here May 6-7 Under Auspices Local Lodge

The Newark lodge of Elks is to have a big circus.

A real circus with red lemons, peanuts, popcorn and all the fixings known to knights and lovers of the tented exhibition.

There will be big shows and little shows for grown-ups and shows for the kiddies.

Everything from 14 bears to the dog faced boy in the side show will be exhibited morning and afternoon for the days starting May 6 and 7.

Col. Frank P. Spellman, known to every circus owner and spectator in the country as the producer of the best that may be had on the sawdust rings, will have his complete show and artists at the beck and call of the Newark lodge.

Beginning with a daily street parade at 10 o'clock, there will not be a dull minute until the "Rubens" have laid away the vast ocean of canvases that is required to roof this mammoth production.

Three Cossacks with the same number of ladies with six beautiful Arabian steeds, direct from St. Petersburg will furnish the thrills in equestrian art. Their act has been applauded by all the nobility of Russia and royal visitors at Moscow. It is the best that this country can produce, and there are not better horsemen in the world than these fiery men of the plain.

Mr. Spellman's own trained bears, 14 in number and many cubs not yet put through their paces, will be brought from the New York Hippodrome where the crowds of three years were delighted with the antics of these hairy performers who behave as well when unleashed as when confined in their cages.

Two rings and two stages are required to exhibit the 35 star acts that the Spellman circus carries in its repertoire. High in mid-air the Arabian troupe which played the past winter at the Berlin Winter garden, will perform in their own original acts that have made them the envy of all wire and trapeze performers in America.

An elephant band to date has been an unknown feature in circus work, yet with the Spellman shows come the famous royal elephants who gained their world-wide prominence while playing Beethoven, Chopin and Liszt at the Palace theater in London.

Morristini with his animals is said to have every species of the brute kingdom ever created for man. To the followers of the circus Morristini is reputed to have the most complete "ark" in the game. The "ark" being the argot term in circus life, meaning wagons where in the animals are confined.

No troupe of performers no matter how perfect in their art, is complete without the clown, and the Spellman show has a bevy of these laugh provoking fun makers knock-about and comedians that are irresistible. Their pantomimes and travesties and burlesques are all new, portraying in their mimical manner the Mexican war, the opening of the Panama canal, the star pitchers gyrating with their new slab delivery and the ladies in their newest go to meeting low-cut, high slit gowns, are portrayed with a vividness that may be translated by the casual observer.

A touch of the wild west, that is no more excepting in song and story, and the circus ground is also included among the 35 odd interesting and educational acts.

Tents will be pitched at the show ground, where the folks who live in boarded or brick houses may witness the manner in which the cuisine, commissary, equine, canine and the myriad of other departments are cared for by the army of employees.

As an added attraction special for the Elks the management of the circus has secured the "Cage of Death," Europe's latest sensational thrill, direct from the Casino at Madrid.

SENIORS TAKE SECOND GAME BY CLOSE SCORE

Granville, April 25.—The second contest of the inter-class league was won by the seniors in a rather close 5-inning game Thursday evening. Both teams were rather erratic in the first inning but afterwards settled down and played good ball. The count stood 3-6 at the close of the game.

In the opening session Hastings tripled with the bases loaded, tying up the score for the seniors. Because of some bad errors and a hit in the first frame the freshmen scored three. Hits and good base running were largely responsible for five runs by the senior team in the third.

Galloway made several hard catches for the seniors. Scott played well for the freshmen.

GEO. L. WAGNER, B. & O. CONDUCTOR DIES SUDDENLY

George L. Wagner, one of the best known conductors in this division of the B. & O., died of a sudden attack of apoplexy. The body was brought to his home, 104 East Church street, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Wagner, for many years on the Newark division as a freight conductor. Recently he had been assigned to the O. & L. K. division out of Zanesville. He left his home here Friday at 12:40 p. m., apparently in his usual health and took charge of his train out of Zanesville. At Fair Oaks, about distance east of Zanesville, he was taken suddenly ill. Realizing the apparent seriousness of his condition the train crew arranged to have him hurried back to Zanesville to the hospital where he received prompt attention, but he lived only a short time after being removed to the institution.

Mr. Wagner was 51 years of age, and was actively affiliated with all social and benevolent branches of the company employees' organizations. He is survived by the widow, a sister of Fred Connolly, who has been for many years also a well known B. & O. man; two daughters at home, Beulah and Dorothy, and a married daughter, Mrs. Nina Wilson, of Elyria, O.

Chickens.

Now man goes forth and makes his garden, a hard and painful grind, and then the crime beyond all pardon destroys his peace of mind. His neighbor keeps a string of chickens, and they, inflated with greed, come over and scratch to beat the dickens, and dig up all the seed. And then the man whose wasted labor has set him seeding red, walls over to see that bennish neighbor and manures his head. Thus village feuds are often started, and people raise the deuce, and men and dames are broken hearted because some hens ran loose. In any town where leggy chickens run loose, in scorn of law, you may be sure that trouble thickens, and hearts are sore and raw. Old hens and roosters have created more trouble caused more tears, than could in seven weeks be stated by seven auctioneers. If you must keep a herd of berberias or other brands of fowls on, take them where their frantic writhings won't stir up grief and howls. To some lone wilderness escort them, some desert far away, there you may cuddle them and sort them, and watch the planned tools lay.

Mr. Phillips had Stomach Trouble for More than Five Years.

Mr. W. R. Phillips, Jr., 129 Moreland ave., Atlanta, Georgia, writes: "I had the catarrh and stomach trouble for more than five years, and I faithfully tried all the medicines I saw advertised, and found they all failed to cure me. I then heard of Peruna. I purchased six bottles, and after their use I soon discovered that I was well, safe and sound. I now weigh two hundred and ten pounds, and have never been sick since I took Peruna. It surely is the best medicine for colds, stomach trouble and catarrh that I ever heard of."

On Second Thought

Most of the frankness is tempered with a little conversational saive, but at that, those who "say it to your face" are more numerous than those who wish to hear it.

An expert is a crank who is qualified to speak.

Buck Kilby, whose experience with women has been intellectual, says it is the bride who should be congratulated.

After you have shown a man that there is something in it for him, it is much easier to convince him that it is right.

The bestowal, by President Wilson, of a hero medal upon a brakeman was a gracious act, but the brakeman probably would have preferred a pair of corduroy pants.

Buck Kilby says marriage is the only sentence from which no time is subtracted for good behavior.

One person may fall in love, but a flirtation requires the active cooperation of two.

When a silk hat is sentenced to a small town the term is for life.

SLAUGHTER OF THE INNOCENTS.

THE little poem beginning "Baby, by, here's a fly," shows the spirit with which the house fly used to be regarded and even appreciated as a domestic ornament and baby's playmate. They did not realize that baby's life lay with the fly, and who was most probably just from some consumptive or typhoid patient's sickroom or from a neighboring stable.

As soon as the fly has emerged from the shell it is ready for its deadly work. It starts out from the stable or the garbage can in search of more filthy food. Around it flies from one insanitary place to another. It enters the sickroom and gathers there the death dealing bacteria. It gets typhoid germs on its legs and flies away to some table and wipes them off on the food. It gathers tuberculous germs and crawls into the sugar and over the butter and often ends by tumbling into the milk.

It is hard enough for grown persons to fight off the contaminating flies, but helpless babies are wholly at the mercy of their worst foe. The flies swarm about them, settle down on their faces, walk over their nursing bottles and leave only when driven away by the baby's resister.

The Lodges

I. O. O. F.

Tuesday evening April 21, 1914, Olive Branch Lodge met in regular session with a very good attendance. There were some excellent speeches delivered by visiting brothers for the good of the order.

Next Tuesday evening April 28, 1914, we expect all members of the degree staff to be on hand in order to practice the degree work.

Visiting Brothers are always welcome.

St. Olive Encampment, No. 12.

At the last regular session of St. Olive Encampment, the meeting was adjourned to meet Thursday evening, April 23rd. Patriarchs, this is Royal Purple meeting. We want to finish our work before the weather becomes warm. We have several candidates for this degree, thus a very interesting meeting is assured. Remember also that the Grand Chief Patriarch will be with us Thursday, May 7th.

Newark Lodge No. 623.

Newark Lodge disposed of considerable business last Monday evening and also enjoyed a social session in the way of a smoker. Brothers, we call your attention to the meeting for Monday evening April 27th, when the Second degree will be conferred. Be on the lookout for our entertainment and refreshment committee in order that you will not miss any of the coming social affairs.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 25.—[Special.]—The prospects for the adjournment of this session of congress have disappeared in the dim and misty future, was the comment of Speaker Champ Clark a short time after the war resolution had been passed by congress. The new development in Mexico does not necessarily postpone the adjournment, although it is probable that considerable time will be necessary to consider ways and means for carrying on the war.

Back in Spanish war days all war measures were passed hastily, and some of them were not well considered. The provision for increases of the army and enlargement of staff corps seemed to be more for the purpose of giving army men promotions rather than for efficient service. It is doubtful whether such legislation as that will be allowed to pass without scrutiny for the Mexican war.

Enthusiasm Waning.

Considerable comment is heard about the lack of enthusiasm for the war in Mexico as compared with that which existed sixteen years ago, when war was made with Spain. For more than fifty years the United States had wanted Cuba, and, although the declaration was that we were not going to take Cuba for ourselves, nobody believed that it would be ultimately carried out. Then, again, the destruction of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor had aroused great resentment among the American people. While it is true that people have become indignant at the atrocities committed by Mexicans against American citizens, it has not aroused the people to any such pitch as was manifested when war was forced with Spain. Consequently neither in congress nor among those who are watching the progress of events in the national capital was the same intense interest as during the events leading up to the war with Spain.

When the Eagle Soars.

There is one thing that cannot be doubted, and that is that soaring the American eagle and waving the American flag is a good political asset. This was demonstrated during the debate of the Mexican resolution. The fellows who cautioned congress to move slowly, who counted the cost in lives and treasure, who pointed out the mistakes of the war with Spain, did not receive much consideration. On the other hand, the fellow who made the eagle scream and waved the Old Glory aloft in word pictures received tremendous applause from members of the house and from the galleries. In spite of all the talk that we hear about peace politicians know that war is popular.

An Indian Fighter.

General Hugh L. Scott, selected for the assistant chief of staff, is an Indian fighter. There is no man in the army that better understands the Indian sign language than General Scott. Besides, he learned it at a time when the sign language was valuable to soldiers. General Scott is much admired by President Wilson, and it is expected that in time he will become chief of staff, which is the ambition of every army officer.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Those who were present on Sunday afternoon enjoyed a fine program. Special music was rendered by Misses Julia Sells and Alice Riggs and Mr. Wall, and special readings by Miss Charlotte Siegmund. Mrs. Eugene Ball gave a very interesting and helpful Vesper talk and an informal time was enjoyed by all.

At the present time, all of the rooms in the building are filled, making 16 in our family. Miss Woolbridge of Los Angeles, Calif., and Miss Belle Yount of Kalamazoo, Mich., are occupying the two transient rooms.

The House girls have organized an Anti-Blanc club. At supper each night any one who uses a slang word pays one cent to the treasurer. The funds will be used to buy a special treat for the table.

The Business Girls class will end its term of indoor gymnasium work, with a party, to be given next Tuesday evening. The work in the junior department will close about May 1, with an evening exhibition of class work.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will co-operate in the use of the tennis courts on Second street. Classes will be started as soon as the courts are in a suitable condition. The Y. M. C. A. have also very kindly agreed to let us use their pool twice a week for swimming lessons. Let us show our appreciation by having large and enthusiastic classes in both tennis and swimming. The terms and other particulars will be given as soon as possible. If any one has a tennis racquet not in use, perhaps they would be glad to loan it to the Y. W. C. A. for the season.

Miss Hazel Pottingell, former general secretary, has accepted a position as industrial secretary in the Y. W. C. A. at Lynchburg, Va.

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur brings back its vigor, color, gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hair has disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. It Was In His Head.

Balzac once promised Lireux, the manager of the Odeon theater in Paris, a five act drama, "The Springs of Quinola." He was so busy with other work, however, that not till he had been long and urgently importuned did he promise to read his piece to the company the next week. The company gathered about him on the day appointed, and he read his five act play fluently through to the end. Lireux was enthusiastic, ran up to shake hands with the great writer and turned over the pages of the manuscript, whose contents had pleased him mightily. But what was this? There were only four acts. The last pages of the manuscript were blank. In surprise the manager asked what it all meant. Balzac smiled and admitted that he had not yet written out the fifth act, but declared that he had it as clearly in his head as if it already stood on paper. "And," continued the poet merrily, "I have in the same head two more outcomes of the plot in case the one I just read doesn't please you."

Margaret and Van were breakfasting together late one morning. Van was hungry and Margaret fractious.

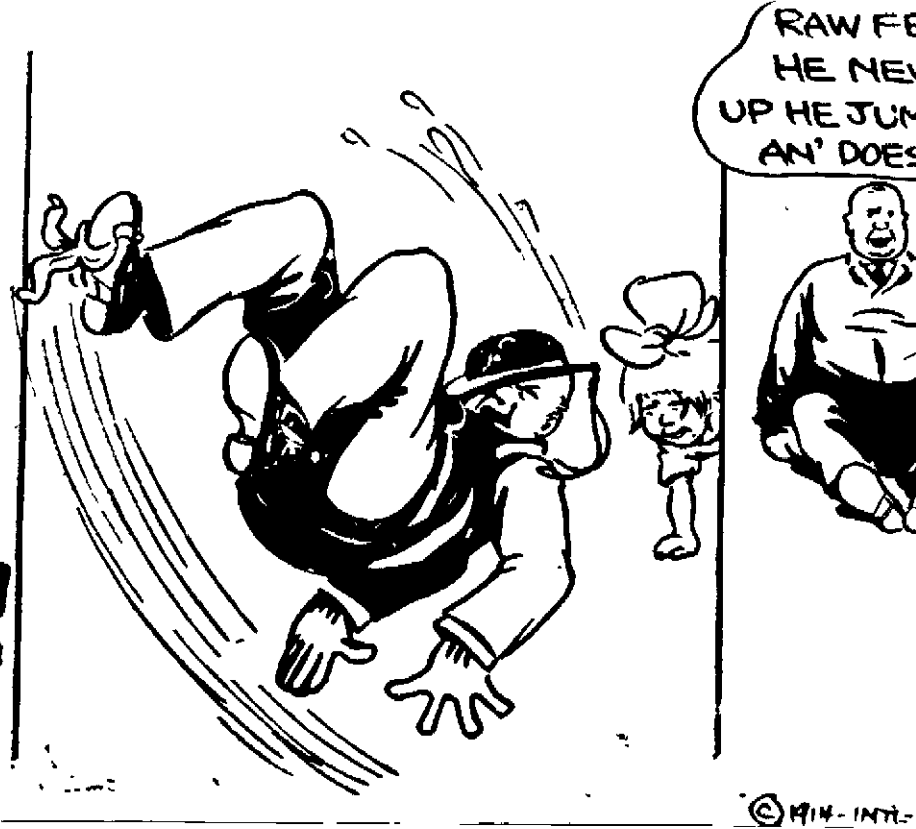

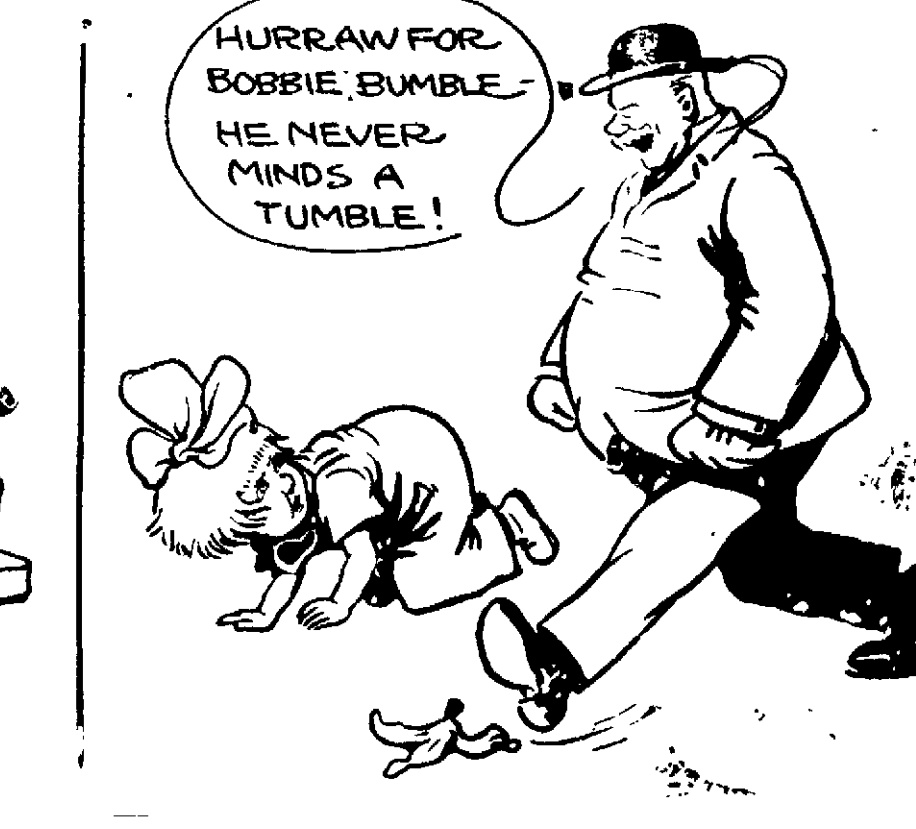

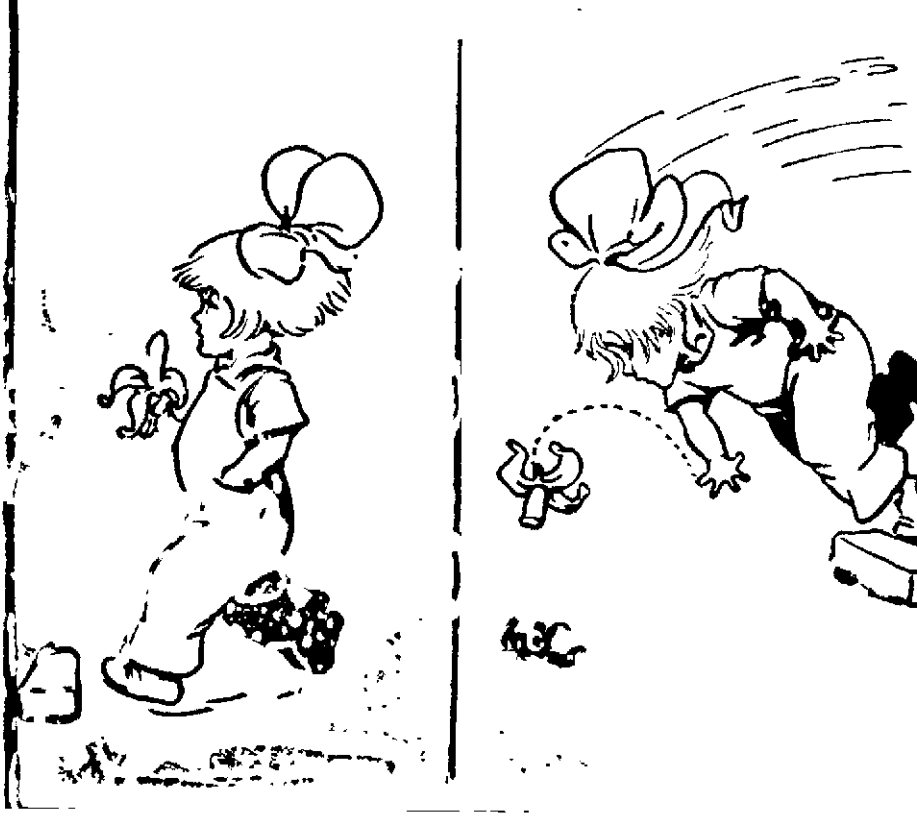

"Van, how can you eat so much?" demanded Margaret irritably.

"Oh, I'm a Van, you know," returned he good humoredly. "I can carry a good deal."

"Yes," retorted Margaret; "you're a regular carry van."—Indianapolis News.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

Woman As The Nation's Salvation.

"I heard an address today," the Clubwoman said, "made by a public official famous the country over, in which he said woman was the nation's salvation. Really, it was funny, if it hadn't been somewhat irritating."

"Since he was making it before your club," soothed the Listener, "perhaps he was only trying to be complimentary."

"Then it was stiller than ever. If anyone has got by the sugar-plum stage of existence, surely it is clubwomen. Somehow or other, it seems as if men can never take us quite sanely. I don't think many of us long to be the nation's salvation. And if we did, it would be as wrong an ambition as the other extreme of desiring to do nothing for the nation. To hear that speaker talk, you might think that henceforth and forever, now that woman had stepped forward and was taking hold of things politically and civically, man had nothing to do but lie back and take life easy. I call that pernicious doctrine."

The Listener laughed. "It often works out that way, though," she said. "Haven't you noticed that when a wife starts in to earn a little money the husband gradually lets more and more of the burden of providing for the family fall upon her?"

"That's true," mused the Clubwoman. "I know a woman who began selling her home-made bread and cakes just to earn a little pin-money for herself. And now she is practically supporting the family. The husband just gradually slumped on the job. In fact, I know dozens of such cases," went on the Clubwoman, energetically, after pondering a bit, "but if I thought that is what would happen by woman's taking the reins of government, I don't know whether I would advocate it."

"Undoubtedly women would make a better job of running the ship of state," teased the Listener, knowing the Clubwoman's views.

"That's not the whole of the matter. Of course we want the ship of state run as superbly as possible, but we are impartial and just enough to see and to say that both men and women should have a hand in running it. We would be as bigoted and narrow as the men now are, if we excluded them. It is the same principle as that which should run a home. Both the man and woman should share equally, though differently, in the management and responsibilities. And to say that woman is the nation's salvation is all flub-dub. She isn't any more than man is. I think it is pernicious doctrine. If it becomes an accepted fact, woman will take herself too seriously and a lot of men will lie down on their responsibilities, just as a lot of them do upon earning the living when the wife takes a hand."

"Well," soothed the Listener, "I guess every one's present knew that the speaker was only trying to say something nice and complimentary to the ladies present. Consider his intention and not the way he carried it out." But the Clubwoman only sniffed, and sarcastically remarked upon good intentions as paving material.

Circus Owners Are Interesting Men and Few Who Ever Enter the Circus Field Are Ever Able To Shake Off Desire to Follow the "White Tops."

THE HAGENBECK WALLACE CIRCUS

Circus day, to the men who have hundreds of thousands of dollars invested, means the culmination of long and careful and systematic preparation. To get ready for the day has been the work of many months and has employed the attention and talents of men wonderfully expert in their particular fields. Ninety-seven per cent. of the men engaged in the circus calling are descendants of those who have followed the calling in other years. Few who enter the circus fields are ever able to successfully shake off the desire to follow the "white tops."

Adam Forepaugh, a former Philadelphia butcher, who died several years ago, was the most remarkable circus man of his day. There have been others who have enjoyed more publicity, but as to the ability of creating and organizing and the power of handling men, Mr. Forepaugh was without an equal.

He was as rugged and uncut as a Minnesota wood chopper. He talked and acted like a bowery tough. But he had a heart as true as steel and was as kind and resourceful as it is possible for a circus man to be. Often at night, I have seen him emerge from the "big top" after the menagerie had been torn down and round up the crowd of urchins and others who hung about the show, hoping in some way to gain admittance. "Get in here," he would say, with a great bluff and fierceness, "and get in here quick, or I'll tan your hides." It is needless to say that these small boys never waited to have their hides tanned. Then the showman would sit down in his arm chair, rest his hands upon his cane, and chuckle good naturedly. When Mr. Forepaugh died several years ago he was worth more than $4,000,000.

Near Columbus, O., two or three generations ago there lived a poor

Methodist preacher who rode a big circuit, which necessitated him preaching four or five times every Sunday. The Rev. Dr. Selis had four boys, Adam, Lewis, Peter and Ephraim. The neighbors said that the boys were the worst for miles around. Like most other boys, sons of ministers, they were pulled from post to pillar and they grew up as best they could. The boys finally left home and began to peddle Bibles. This proved rather slow and they began to sell electric belts, which they passed out like wildfire. The ability of the wizard-like Edison was just beginning to dawn and they proved profitable days to the vendors of electric belts. The boys saved their money and one day they had a chance to buy a small wagon show that had stranded. They did all sorts of things to save salaries, even to the raising of the tent in which the performance was given. The show grew and prospered, and when the last of the brothers died in Columbus six years ago, he left an estate of many million dollars. The careful training the boys received in a Christian home was never afterward eradicated in spite of their calling or business principles.

A showman who is known by all circus men and of whom the layman knows but little is "Popcorn" George Hall, living at Delevan Lake, Wis. He is hale and hearty at the age of 82. Circus men of other days all had one great failing, they loved to be called "colonel," and as soon as one came into possession of a circus, the title automatically fell to him. Now, Mr. Hall had been known for a quarter of a century as "Pop George," for it was he who invented the candy form of delicacy made from popcorn. And so, when Mr. Hall came into possession of his first circus, he had calling cards printed reading "Col. George W. Hall," and likewise on all his passes he had a similar "handle." But the old circus followers couldn't see the "colonel," and much to Mr. Hall's chagrin, he was ever known as "Popcorn George."

The richest individual showman in the world today lives not a great way from Indianapolis, in the little city of Peru, Ind. He is "Uncle Ben" Wallace, and the name has been lisped upon the tongue of millions of little tots in the United States, Canada and Mexico. Thirty years ago Mr. Wallace was running a livery stable in Peru. One day a small wagon show passed through town and bought several horses. A mortgage was taken on the circus paraphernalia. The showmen were never able to lift the mortgage and it fell into Mr. Wallace's hands. He tried in vain to dispose of the property, and so the next spring he took it out, calling the little aggregation "The Great Wallace Show." The young Hoosier showman applied to his circus the same careful attention that he had given his livery stable. He was one of the first men to run a show upon business like principles, and to do away with the gypsylike methods which had long predominated in circus life. Dishonesty and graft were not allowed in any form.

It is no wonder that the show began to grow and to continue to do so until it reached the zenith of circusdom. The running of a circus is a stupendous proposition. Generally there are many men interested, and each has one particular line of work to follow. Not so with Mr. Wallace—he has never had a partner. His success has been due to the fact that he knows how to handle men.

There is nothing about his great organization with which he is not familiar. He knows every one of the 1,025 employees, most of them by their first name. On a rainy, bad night, when difficulty is found in loading the train, it is not an uncommon sight to see him down at the "ruins" in mud up to his knees, wrestling and working side by side with the circus "razorbacks," whose pay is less than $1 per day. Mr. Wallace purchased the great Carl Hagenbeck wild animal show six years ago and combined it with his circus, making it the largest organization of its kind in the world. He travels with the show at all times, and he personally selects the 300 performers and the hundreds of other attaches.

The Hagenbeck-Wallace show will come to Newark, Thursday, April 30, aboard the special train of eighty-seven cars. Two performances will be given.

Theaters

Orpheum Theater.
The vaudeville bill for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week at the Orpheum theater promises to be one of exceptional merit, and is diversified enough to appeal to all patrons. Perry, has a musical act, which also embraces comedy and dancing and will prove decidedly "something different" from the usual musical act. Lulu Carter, singing comedienne, and quick change artist, is a vocalist of ability, and her costumes are especially lavish. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gordon will present a delightful comedy sketch entitled "A C. O. D. Baron" which is a series of farcical climaxes. Santos and Hayes have a sister act which will prove decidedly funny and decidedly out of the ordinary, while Hanson and Rodell who have established an enviable reputation for themselves as singers, dancers and acrobats will be warmly welcomed. Fred Hanson is a trick tumbler while Mile Rodell is an expert toe dancer. The show opens and closes with motion pictures of the first class.

$100 REWARD, $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

LOVELY DRESSES IN NEW STYLES FOR THE SUMMER

Have you seen the pretty summer things at Schiff's? If you haven't, go in the store at once for you will be charmed with the good looking attire this specialty store is showing for women, misses and children. The display window affords you only a glimpse of what is on the inside and you must go in and look around to thoroughly appreciate the extent of the marvelous values that Schiff has provided for you. Suits in all the new shades and materials of the conservative styles—not too extreme—yet with every line showing grace and style. Suits that in most stores you would pay from $5, $10 and even $20 more you will find here so reasonably priced.

Waists—Well the waists here are the real thing. Schiff had not been in business long until it was heard on every side that never were seen such beautiful waists and the prices were so low they were surprising. This reputation stuck to Schiff and the waist business has grown to be immense.

The summer dresses at Schiff's are now delighting every visitor. The latest designs, just fresh from New York, are now being shown in all their freshness and loveliness. You must see this big array before buying your summer dresses.

Schiff is showing an unusually big line of children's wear in coats, dresses, hats, etc., and every mother will appreciate this department.

We almost forgot to mention the exquisite silk dresses—they are there in the most stunning effects and colorings. You'd expect such lovely gowns to be way up in price—but they are not—they are like everything else in this store—so reasonable that it surprises you.

An attractive line of neckwear, sashes, belts, etc., is also shown.

Prize No. 52 in the Advocate's big Booklovers' contest is a lady's $20.00 silk dress, purchased from Schiff's. It is needless to say that the woman who wins this prize will be lucky indeed.

Surely nothing is more appropriate for these gifts than good jewelry and silverware. Fuchs Bros. invite you to inspect their stock of these lines. You will find an abundance of articles there from which to select gifts that are sure to please. The reputation and reliability of Fuchs Bros. is known to all. Begin your shopping now, don't delay, but be a first choice buyer.

The Advocate selected the Fuchs Bros. Jewelry store to purchase the splendid $110 diamond ring in the big Booklovers' contest. Drop in and examine this beautiful ring. Don't forget Fuchs Bros. location, 16 North Park Place, just two doors east of the Interurban station.

Selfish Etiquette.
Some rules in an old book on etiquette seem to encourage a practice commonly called "looking out for No. 1." Here are two of them:
When cake is passed do not finger each piece, but with a quick glance select the best.
Never refuse to taste of a dish because you are unfamiliar with it or you will lose the taste of many a delicacy while others profit by your abstinence, to your lasting regret.

$82.00 THORNHILL WAGON BOOKLOVERS' CONTEST PRIZE

The best known materials—the labor of master workmen—the aid of the most ingenious modern machinery—have been employed to make the Thornhill wagon.

The wheels are made with excessive care. For the spokes the manufacturers use the finest hickory—machine driven to insure the right dish. The hubs are of oak, thoroughly seasoned and banded with double refined sable iron.

The bolsters are of the best white oak. They have an iron plate at top and bottom, riveted through and through—multiplying their strength.

The "Thornhill" has a malleable front bound plate that is braced to front hound plate that is braced to the hounds at all points. This is an exclusive "Thornhill feature." It prevents the gears from ever getting out of line and causing hard pulling.

"Thornhill" wagons are equipped with long sleeve malleable—non-breaking skains that insure light running and outlast any other skain. Each skain is fitted to its axle with a Defiance machine—infallibly accurate. This machine insures the right pitch and tuck, makes light draft a certainty.

The axles are of toughest hickory—the steel axles of the best refined steel.

The sides of "Thornhill" bed are made of poplar. It costs the makers more—but it holds paint better and gives better service.

FINE MEETING OF HETUCK CHAPTER D. A. R. THURSDAY

There was nothing dull about the meeting of the Hetuck Chapter of the D. A. R. held at the Van Buren residence on West Church street on Thursday. The interest did not center on the starting conditions in our country now, it took the turn of most interesting facts and comments on the old-time Newark, given by Mrs. C. Hemstead and others. The program having been arranged at the beginning of the year. We listened first to an excellent paper prepared by Mrs. R. H. Wemy, daughter of an early resident, Daniel Wilson. Calico could not be afforded and the women began to wear a very thin wool fabric instead. wool also advanced to 75 cents and even $1 per pound.

It was Mrs. Hemstead's 78th birthday and she was honored by the Chapter presenting her with a fine birthday cake decorated with small flags and seasoned with sincere friendship, good-will and appreciation. Mrs. Hemstead said that on her arrival in Newark at the age of 9 she entered a private school taught by Elizabeth Reader. She remembers her school days by name and only three of the girls living. On entering this place her father drove his wagon over to Granville's mill and she was so afraid of the descent, but he assured her there was no danger. The court house was a small frame building, fenced in by a picket fence painted white. A fence was necessary as the cows and horses roamed about the streets at will, the pigs wallowing in a swamp where the old Methodist church now stands. One of the ladies spoke of a particular, aristocratic swine owned by her father, it was not let go except through the middle of the day when its bell time came they would go out and call it in. It knew them and would run to meet them grunting and curling its tail in token of love. The McMillen family in Cherry Valley always kept a number of milch cows and they would wander along the cow path into the village of Newark. It was mostly thick woodland, they would cross the creek and graze along to Fourth street and clear to the tavern on the canal bank, called the Giraff. The McMillen children imagined that they often got milked at the tavern. There was another tavern called the Curry. The taverns were well heated by immense fire places that would hold nearly a wagon load of wood. The poker was hidden or sometimes kept under lock and key, so no one but the proprietor could stir the fire for obvious reasons. One elderly lady told about her mother, who was a progressive woman, saying one hot day in mid-summer to her husband, "I read in the Delaware Gazette that there is such a thing as a cook stove on exhibition in Delaware and I am going over to see it," and before long mother had a cookstove, and all the neighbors flocked to see it. She was a Yankee and made cheese to sell for 6 cents a pound, and other sold dressed chickens for 15 cents a head after hauling them twenty miles to Columbus to market. Chickens went up at the time of the civil war to 25 cents, and calico sold for 50 cents a yard, even at one time it jumped to 70. It took ten yards of calico to make a dress skirt to cover the hoops the women wore; they were called "crinolines." Mrs. Hemstead said again that they moved into a log cabin built where the Five Point grocery stands; she mentioned several old homesteads of that time. Mrs. Wemy's paper was full of interest, about the national road enterprise, past and present. A vote of thanks was given those who had helped to make the meeting so successful, and the adjournment was followed by the presenting of the birthday cake to Mrs. Hemstead, and the serving of a delicious tea by Miss Van Buren, the hostess.

There seems to be quite a difference between having a word with a friend and having words with him.

MONEY IS NEEDED FOR NEW HOSPITAL; PLEASE PAY NOW

The work on the new city hospital has progressed to such an extent as to make it necessary for the trustees to earnestly urge prompt payment of subscriptions. To date the trustees have been able to meet all payments upon the building out of the subscription fund but they will not be able to continue to do so unless all who have not as yet paid their subscriptions give the matter immediate attention. The plastering of the new building has been finished, and rapid progress is being made on the remodeling of the Everett home which will be used for the hospital nurses' home. Every dollar that was subscribed in the hospital campaign will be needed to complete the building, and for that reason each subscriber is urged to be prompt in making his payments to Secretary H. D. Woodbridge, at the Franklin National Bank. The next estimate on the building will soon be due and the trustees hope that it may be met promptly out of the outstanding subscriptions, which they hope will be promptly paid to the secretary.

Are We Doing Our Part for the Upbuilding

Community advancement is a matter of individual advancement; a personal problem worked into a community movement.

Each has his part to play in the general work of making society better and making community life more ideal.

"From every one according to his merit; to every one according to his need."

Each has his part to play in making the churches more valuable to the general citizenship, each individual having a responsibility for his part of the work of improvement.

Every community has some few persons who are fitted to be leaders, to be planners of the big work, but every community must have workers as well as leaders, and every individual is fitted in some way to be one of the workers.

Each has some talents that can be best used for the general good of those about us; each has some special training which fits him for helping others.

The work of the church is to get the church members to appreciate both the needs of the times and the individual ability to help.

Every organization which serves a useful purpose is developing workers who can add much to the general advancement of conditions.

TRY THE BEST

One of the most important necessities of every-day life is soap. The housewife owes it to herself, however, to be careful of the kind of soap she uses. It is the height of folly to use some of the cheap yellow laundry soaps with which the market is overflooded. Whilst in many cases these common soaps take out the dirt, they frequently ruin the clothes.

EASY TASK SOAP

will not injure the finest linen, does not inflame or roughen the hands, and is perfectly sanitary. Easy Task Soap is one of the best cleansers on the market. It has no equal for cleaning painted woodwork, porcelain bath tubs, cooking utensils and everything connected with the household. Sold at all leading grocers. Price five cents per cake. A trial will convince you of its merits.

THE BEST BREAK I EVER MADE IN MY LIFE

Here's A tribute From A Man Who Found Two Other Worthless, But Beat Drink Habit at Columbus Neal Institute.

"I wish to say right here, without any further preliminaries, that my going to the Columbus Neal Institute was the best break I ever made in my life."

This is the introductory sentence to one of the most remarkable letters ever received from a happy graduate of the Neal Institute. Thousands have gone out from these institutions quickly relieved from the craving which kept them in bondage of drink. Many have expressed their appreciation of the Neal Treatment in messages that ring true with sincerity.

"Since I left your institute in November," continues this writer, "I have never had the least desire for any kind of drink or dope of any nature whatsoever. I can now pass a saloon without ever thinking of going inside—something that I could not do for the last thirty years! Once since I left you I have been in a saloon. It was during last January, at Lancaster. I called to see an old friend of mine. I did not see him but saw at least a dozen 'good fellows' drinking beer and whiskey. I knew most of them, but the 'bloody stuff' was no longer any attraction for me. To show you how much superior your place is to other sanitariums. Some 25 years ago I took a 'cure' at another institution, but it was not effective. Last year I took the same 'cure' at another place in Columbus, but again it was not effective. I shall at all times be a booster for the Noble Neal Institute. My health has improved wonderfully and people all remark to me: 'You look better than you have for 20 years,' which is 'some talk.' I sleep soundly with no further use for any sleeping powders. Say 'Dope' to me—No! Say DRINK—NO!"

It is glorious just to read over letters like this that come from new-born souls who are once more 'masters of self and no longer slaves of alcoholic appetite. Three days of Neal Treatment—harmless, vegetable, wholly taken by mouth and with no dangerous hypodermic injections—are sufficient to change craving desire for liquor to intense dislike of everything alcoholic. There is no publicity. Just go to Dr. George R. Bissell's old Kendal Place home, where you'll be treated like a guest. Appetizing meals are served. Best of medical service given. For free Booklets, address the Neal Institute, 1320 Main street, Columbus, Ohio. Telephone Bell East 860, Citizens 15622. Other Neal Institutes at Cleveland and Cincinnati.

PURSUERS SHOOT RUNAWAY BRIDE AND THE GROOM

(Associated Press Telegram.) Cleveland, April 25.—Because she had fled with and married the man she loved, Mrs. William Martino, a bride of a week, and her husband, of Chicago, were shot at their home on West Sixty-ninth street, by two men who followed them from Chicago. Martino was shot through the head and in the abdomen and will die. His wife has a bullet in her thigh.

My parents objected to our marriage, Mrs. Martino said. "We ran away from Chicago and came to Cleveland last Sunday and were married. Two men entered our home and demanded that I leave my husband and return with them to Chicago. When I refused both men pulled revolvers and opened fire on us. Then they fled."

The police so far have no clue to the identity of the gunmen. Women first admitted to the University of Wisconsin in 1866. More than 1,000 were enrolled for the sessions of 1913-14.

THE STEAMSHIP WATERLAND IN DRYDOCK.

So graceful are the lines of the steamship Waterland, the world's largest ship, that it is difficult to realize that it is a ship. The lines of her long narrow prow suggest those of a fish. A full-length picture of the great liner in drydock is shown here. It is the largest ship ever built. The new Hamburg-American liner measures 515 feet in length, while the top of the funnel rises 200 feet above the keel. The ship is built of steel. The hull is 30 feet high, which may be compared with the height of a house. The propeller is the largest in the world, weighing 125 tons. The ship's anchor weighs 105 tons. The liner has a complement of 750. She will sail from Hamburg on her maiden trip May 14 and arrive at New York May 21.

Completing Organization For Newark Board of Trade's City-Wide Precinct Campaign

During the past two weeks, the executive committee of the Board of Trade, has been busy in rounding up the organization of personal workers for the campaign, in each precinct. This work has been one that required the best judgment to be exercised in getting together committees, the personnel of which must with certain necessary requirements.

In the first place it was essential that the men composing the teams should be congenial with each other, and yet represent various lines of activity. In doing this the aim was to secure cohesive strength. This was indispensable for effective work from the committee standpoint, but was not the only consideration by any means.

Almost if not quite of equal importance was the fact that men chosen to do this work should be known in their precinct as possessing character, intelligence, and an unselfish steadfastness to a single purpose, which has been announced repeatedly to be the industrial development of Newark along definite lines of securing new factories to locate in the city.

Finally each team must have a captain or head, who has the desire, ability and enthusiasm to direct the work of those associated with him. Through him the workers receive instructions, encouragement and general advice. He keeps account of the progress of the work down makes reports to the general executive committee.

In this way all keep in touch with the body, which in turn has special reports from each section of the city, and can at all times know to what degree the work is advancing.

It will thus be seen that the organization is complete and comprehensive in its scope and the details of its operations are governed by rules that cannot bring about a successful result.

All that remains now is for the citizens of Newark to respond to the efforts of these committees, cheerfully co-operate in the objects sought to be attained, and give their support to the general plan for Newark's industrial growth and prosperity.

It is also urged that those who have not yet signed and returned the cards received by them, to the Secretary of the Board of Trade, W. P. Wulfoop, do so at once and thus lighten the work of the campaign.

AMERICAN ARMY RESTORES ORDER IN VERA CRUZ

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Washington, April 25.—With the complete restoration of order in Vera Cruz, the safe exodus of Charge O'Shaughnessy and his staff from Mexico City, and a transport carrying reinforcements of troops ploughing swiftly through southern seas, President Wilson and his advisors today were on the alert for a counter move by Huerta, and awaited the development of any positive attitude by Carranza, the constitutional chief. The sporadic outbreak in Nuevo Laredo where evacuating federals fired across the Rio Grande, and drew a pelting of bullets from the American border patrol, and the reported arrest of several Americans by Huertista authorities at Orizaba, scarcely served to alter an already absorbing situation.

Officials today awaited news of the reception by Carranza of a telegram sent by constitutional representatives in Washington, advising him to remain neutral, and declaring the United States intended to withdraw its forces from Vera Cruz as soon as reparation for Huerta's offenses had been obtained. A ray of hope that the constitutionalists would remain neutral was contained in reported utterances of Villa, the military chief under Carranza. Despite that, however, many officials declined to rest assured and the strengthening of the border patrol continued today.

Representative Kent of California, took to the White House today a telegram from a friend in El Paso whom he described as well informed, stating that in his opinion the constitutionalists would remain quiet, if "properly treated."

Huerta, in the anti-American atmosphere of Mexico City that was marked last night by desecration of a statue of George Washington, might make a delicate move today, it is thought. Since he had given the American charge his passports, a positive declaration of war would not be surprising to officials here. His next move, it was believed, would develop whether it would be necessary for the American forces now in complete possession of Vera Cruz to proceed further perhaps to Huerta's capital.

While officials of the war and navy departments worked under stress in preparation for any eventualities, Col. Goehals in Panama had ordered the canal zone placed on a specific war footing and Texas troops were ordered toward the border to help federal troops patrol districts where there was any danger of outbreaks or raiding by marauders from south of the Rio Grande. Congress had its share in the crisis by enacting the volunteer army bill which the president was expected to sign today. It provides means for raising a volunteer army in emergencies.

Meanwhile Rear Admiral Badger with his marines and bluejackets was restoring order in shell scarred Vera Cruz. The sinister cost of the first move in the war drama was shown by official figures that seventeen Americans perished and seventy-five were wounded in the seizure of the Mexican port. That was more than the casualties of naval engagements of the entire Spanish-American war when 16 Americans were killed and 48 wounded. Official messages early today reported that the wounded on the hospital ship in Vera Cruz harbor were satisfactorily responding to treatment.

Inquiries over the disposition of the bodies of marines and bluejackets who perished in the seizure of Vera Cruz reached the war department today. Representatives Moore and Vane of Pennsylvania were informed that the victims of the houseboat snibers would be returned to their home towns by the government on northbound ships.

ULSTER AGAIN HEARD FROM; ARMS RECEIVED

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Belfast, Ireland, April 25.—A consignment of about 25,000 rifles and half a million rounds of ammunition from Germany was landed at isolated point, on the coast of Ulster during last night and distributed by means of 200 automobiles to the various headquarters of the Ulster "volunteers." The Ulstermen who declared themselves determined to offer a stern armed resistance to the introduction of home rule were mobilized early last night and guarded the landing places and the roads until the distribution of the arms had been completed.

The police were powerless to interfere and all communications were interrupted.

RAILROAD MEN ASKED TO QUIT MEXICAN ROADS

(Associated Press Telegram.)

New York, April 25.—At the office of the National Railways of Mexico the report from Mexico City that President Huerta had asked all the Americans in the employ of the railroad company with the exception of President E. N. Brown, to resign, was confirmed. Mr. Brown is in this city, but it is not known whether he will accede to the request of the Mexican government to continue in charge of the railway.

The local offices of the road will continue to operate the property as best they can from this point.
